

Michael Neville – GM Farmland & Ecosystems, Kilter Rural

---

Kilter Rural exists to improve Australian landscapes and deliver returns to investors. We currently manage over $214m of water, farmland and ecosystem assets, including large scale horticulture, protein and fibre crops
Kilter Rural deliver investors new and expanding opportunities for superior long-term returns from these alternative asset classes.

Michael is a member of the investment team for Kilter Rural, is a fourth-generation farmer and has worked on various properties throughout Australia. He has 30 year's knowledge and experience of varied farming practices including 20 years in corporate agriculture.

Michael completed an Advanced Diploma in Agriculture at the University of Melbourne and an Executive Certificate in Agribusiness at Monash University. He is a member and former Director of the South Western Victoria R&D Group Southern Farming Systems and National Farm Benchmarking Group FM 500.

Currently a founding Director of Wedgetail Food and Fibre Pty Ltd.

